(Filed October 20, 2004)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
EXTENDING TIME FOR FILING TESTIMONY

On February 17, 2005, the defendants in this case filed a motion for an order extending the time within which to serve the testimony on compensation issues required by the scoping memo issued in this case on February 14, 2005.<sup>1</sup> In their motion, defendants state that they have exchanged billing data with the complainant, and that "it is possible the two sides can stipulate as to the accuracy of the traffic exchanged between Pac-West and AT&T so that there will be no need to litigate this issue in an evidentiary hearing.” However, they continue, “the analysis of the data is taking more time than anticipated at the prehearing conference. One problem on AT&T’s part is the basic fact that its experts are located in Georgia and New Jersey and the physical coordination has taken some time.” (Motion, p. 2.) Defendants accordingly request that the time for serving the testimony on compensation issues be extended for 10 days from the February 25 date specified in the Scoping Memo to March 7, 2005. Defendants also state that “Pac-West has authorized AT&T to indicate that while it does not join in this motion and does not believe that an extension of time to file testimony is necessary, it will not object to it.” (Id.)

Based on the foregoing representations, IT IS RULED nunc pro tunc that the time of all parties for serving testimony on the compensation issues described in the Joint Assigned Commissioner and Administrative Law Judge’s Ruling and Scoping Memo issued on February 14, 2005, is extended to and including March 7, 2005.

Dated March 7, 2005, at San Francisco, California.
